

Conference Point Center

Started in 1873 by the Rev. Joseph Collie, Conference Point Center is an historic 21 acre peninsula on Geneva Lake featuring facilities for interfaith retreats and conferences. Outdoor activities are bountiful and the 21 acres of waterfront land provide a perfect backdrop. A game of softball, volleyball or basketball is easily started on the fields and courts at Conference Point Center. To continue the recreation, we offer tennis courts, shuffleboard, horseshoes and just about any game you can dream up on our athletic fields. One of the most popular activities, however, is relaxing on the beach along crystal clear Geneva Lake. Those who seek quieter moments can usually find a private nook in which to read or a perch overlooking the lake.

Sticky

Anyone who has spent time with preschoolers knows that life with them is sticky! Not only are they sticky but preschoolers also tend to possess an innate ability to pass their “stickiness” on to anyone they come in contact with.

We are in a season in our church where we are trying to harness the power of “stickiness” to help our young people develop a faith that sticks as they enter adulthood. Research shows that one of the best ways we can do this is by being together as the body of Christ. All of the different generations have something important to offer the others. When we spend time doing life together that “stickiness” has a chance to rub off on one another helping all of us prepare to take the next step on our faith journey.

Will you consider joining us this summer for an unforgettable weekend as we fellowship, worship, eat, play and “get sticky” together?
