Redefining Our Summer by Ben Palmberg

ummer time is always the point of the year we can't wait for. Schedules become less busy (at least slightly) and we are able to take back some of the time that's been eaten up by all of the busyness of the rest of the year. This along with barbeques, swimming pools, and ice cream at our favorite hangout are just a few of the things we look forward to... especially after a long winter.

At LCC, we are also looking forward to what God has in store for our congregation this summer. We enter this summer with a more defined focus of "God-First Living". First Corinthians 8:6 says, "yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom all things came and for whom we live; and there is but one Lord. Jesus Christ. through whom all things came and through whom we live." This verse compels us to orbit our lives around the person and work of Christ. In this vain, this year our summer will focus on discipleship and seeking to develop a deeper love for God and for others.

There are a few changes to this summer. We won't be having VBS this summer.

This isn't because VBS was bad – everyone loved it.
However, it just wasn't fulfilling our goal of evangelism and we feel as though we can do discipleship better. Instead, we are focusing our evangelism efforts with our Gospel Footprint efforts.

These events are designed to get LCC into the community and not just let rely on the community coming to us. As far as discipleship, we are tweaking our Wednesday nights to be more discipleship-driven with a stronger focus on intergenerational experiences. Not everything is going to see changes like VBS. The LCC Family Retreat is hopefully going to be bigger and better than ever before. We really want to drive home the idea that this is not LCC's retreat for families - this is too exclusive. This retreat is about the LCC family as a whole. Every LCC attender is part of the LCC family and it is this family unit we will seek to build up and strengthen.

I personally can't wait to see how the summer unfolds for us and what God has in store for his people. This summer is going to be awesome; we hope you can join us. In preparation, please join with me in prayer for the three groups leading the charge – that they remain focused on God. His will and His people. Also, pray our congregation grows and strengthens in the faith and in our relationships with God and each other.

Get ready... it's almost here.

the sound that echoes through the air as I make yet another wrong turn and my G.P.S. attempts to get me back on track. The road we call life is fast paced and filled with congestion. From time to time we make wrong turns, get side tracked or even forget where we are trying to go. We invite our entire church family to join us for a weekend away as we take time to "recalculate" and refocus our lives as we prepare to begin a new school year and the busyness that entails. During the retreat we will be looking at some specific tools to help us pursue "God First Living" in the year ahead.

Search Committee Update

Moving forward while waiting patiently

As Larissa reported in last month's update, we've been listening to sermons. As a committee, we decided it was important to listen to sermons together. I've already admitted this to the committee...I wasn't very excited about this idea. (I've also admitted I was wrong!) It wasn't that I didn't want to listen to the sermons. I just thought it would be easier timewise to listen individually, on our own schedules. While it has been a challenge to get nine people's evenings coordinated for five weeks in a row, it has been an amazing experience. We listen to 2-3 sermons from a candidate in an evening, sharing our thoughts following each sermon. We use a list of sermon components, based on our reading, to guide our discussion. The discussions are great, but it's what happens later that I think is even better. During the week, after we've had individual reflection time, emails circulate among us as we dig deeper into the message.

So, what's next? Since I am writing this before we finish listening to sermons, I don't really know for sure. Our prayer is for God to use these sermons to lead us to continue discussions with a candidate, or two or three. You know we've had conversations with many candidates, but no candidate has met with the entire search committee. This will most likely be our next step. This, to me, is very exciting! We understand the search process may seem to be moving slowly. (Owen assures us that it is not!) Know that we continue to work diligently and faithfully on your behalf. You assembled a dedicated team to carry out this important task. I am humbled, on a regular basis, to be a part of this group. None of us takes the work lightly. Now, we all need to trust not just the search process, but also God to continue leading us to the person He has already selected for LCC. Pray that we listen carefully, reflect thoughtfully and wait patiently for God's leading.

For the Search Committee, Beth Hjelm Larissa Greenfield, Janis Carlson, Dan Frost, Kirk Johnson, Paul Nauman, Ben Palmberg, Merileen Thorson, Owen Youngman

Search Committee would like to invite anyone interested to pray together on Sunday, May 4. All who are interested can meet in the Youth Room for a brief time of prayer immediately following the service.

The Evangelical Covenant Church affirms the centrality of the scriptures, with emphasis upon the grace of God. Covenanters also have a tradition of freedom that accepts a diversity of backgrounds and doctrinal positions, while maintaining a common unity in Christ.

The Covenant has often been called a Family of Faith. Our congregational life indicates that this is an apt description.
