MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTORAL SEARCH COMMITTEE

Dear friends of Libertyville Covenant Church,

It is with joy and thanksgiving that we announce we have a candidate for the senior pastor position at Libertyville Covenant Church! By unanimous vote of the committee on June 17, 2014, we have asked a candidate to come to Libertyville for a weekend to meet the congregation and preach on Sunday morning.

The candidate and his family will join us for the weekend of June 27-29, and every member and friend will have the opportunity to meet them in a variety of settings. Please refer to the attached schedule for a list of events. Per the bylaws, there will be a congregational meeting on Sunday, July 6, 2014, immediately following the worship service, at which church members will discuss and vote on extending a formal call. Absentee ballots will be made available to members who are not able to attend.

Specific information about the candidate will be shared during the service this Sunday and sent via email on Monday, allowing him time to notify his current congregation.

We want to thank you for your prayers during the past fifteen months and ask that you lift up the candidate and his family and LCC as we come closer to this important decision. It has been our privilege to witness God's hand at work throughout the search process!

Beth Hjelm and Kirk Johnson, Co-chairs; Janis Carlson, Dan Frost, Larissa Greenfield, Trevor James, Paul Nauman, Ben Palmberg, Merileen Thorson and Owen Youngman
