Fasting and Feasting: Celebrations of our Faith

by Pastor Steve Larson

Our culture incorporates feasting as part of every celebration. So does our faith. From the Seder supper commemorating our redemption from slavery in Egypt to the meal of the Eucharist commemorating our redemption from sin to the Banquet Feast of the Lamb commemorating our eternal life with God, feasting is a natural part of the celebrations of our faith.

But seldom do we think of fasting as part of our celebration. Fasting, we believe, is an act of disciplined self-denial and abasement. Fasting is giving something up, suffering through our loss, and only when it is complete do we celebrate, usually with a huge meal and the idea of "making up for the time lived without the thing we gave up."

Fasting has been a part of our Lenten journey from the beginning. Starting on Ash Wednesday, Christians give up something for the entirety of Lent (46 days), for the non-Sabbath days of Lent (40 days), or for certain days in Lent (Catholics give up meat every Friday). This fast is then broken on Easter Morning.

People give up food, or certain foods, electronics or certain electronics, or sometimes activities or behaviors. Some have more recently begun adding activities (bible reading, regimented prayer, mission activities) rather than giving something up. But as long as we've celebrated Lent, there has been a Lenten fast.

What if this year, we could incorporate celebration into our fasting, linking the two as we link feasting and celebration? What if we could use the hunger produced by our fasting as a reminder to celebrate all that God has done for us? What if every time we felt hungry, or missed our electronics, or felt the effect of our fast, we used those moments to give thanks to God for all He has given us, or shared one moment of gratitude with another person, or read a verse of scripture? How might celebrating this Lent change the way you fast?

Let me encourage you to consider seriously what you might give up for Lent this year. And then with that decision made, let me encourage you to turn your fasting into celebration this year. Let's see what celebration might look like without cakes and feasts, but instead filled with prayer, confession, and thanksgiving.

Worship in Lent . . . the Symbols of Lent

As we enter Lent this year, we will be looking together at the great themes of the faith through the symbols of Christ's Passion. As we look at the cross and the nails, we think about crucifixion and Jesus' call to carry our own cross. As we consider the crown of thorns, we ponder suffering in the world and as part of our faith. And so through the symbols of Lent we can talk together about the themes of kingship, authority, and identity. Join us for worship this Lent every Sunday at 10:30 a.m.

Christian Formation Updates for 2017

With a new year, we have updated the LCC Safety Policy & documents. The changes made were related to updating terms (i.e. youth pastor to Associate to Youth), addressing food allergies, & re-structuring the document to meet our current needs. Some new items added are related to...

- the Nursery Guidelines (14-15 yr. old volunteering opportunities)
- Pre-K to 5th Grade Guidelines (release instructions)
- Jr. & Sr. High Guidelines (mentoring & dress code)

So, for those of you who do work with our children & youth, please take the time to look over these changes, especially the new additions as they apply to you. To see the revised policy & documents please talk to Heather Larson or contact the church office. At a later date this year we will be discussing these changes in more depth during our required annual volunteer training. Until then feel free to contact Heather Larson with any questions, concerns, or comments you may have regarding these revisions.

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday Feb 26 we will welcome back Steve Hall, historian and Bible scholar, to lead us in an 8-week study of the Book of Acts. Steve's classes in the past have always been informative and inspirational, as well as highly engaging. Please join us Sunday mornings at 9:15 in the sanctuary.

March 12th Karl Peterson, our missionary to Mexico will be sharing with us during the Sunday School Hour.

Easter Sunday, April 16th we will not have Sunday School but rather a time of fellowship together before Easter Worship.

In partnership with the Hindu-stani Covenant Church, Covenant World Relief is able to provide gluten free communion wafers produced at the Home of Hope in Pune, India. Women who escape the commercial sex industry come to the Home of Hope to receive counseling, rest, and learn new jobs including making communion wafers. Our Deacons are happy to be able to support this important ministry by using these wafers each month as they serve communion at LCC.

News from Love INC of Lake County

How do pots and pans transform a life?

The answer is: they don't. That might seem like a strange way to begin an article about our starter kit ministry, but it's the truth. Pots and pans alone cannot change a life. Rather, as our starter kit ministers will tell you, lives are transformed when God makes His faithfulness known in the simple interactions shared by Love INC teams and those they serve.

Every month teams from local churches use the resources at Love INC to bring dishes, pots and pans, utensils, and other kitchen essentials to our neighbors in need. They help unpack the boxes and make conversation. The teams laugh and weep with our neighbors, hear their stories, and pray with them. As one starter kit minister from Libertyville Covenant Church says, it's a chance to serve people "in a tangible way and face to face." Nothing can diminish what a beautiful thing it is when believers put themselves out there in service and, to their surprise, find that the Lord has chosen to use them in transforming a life.

Winchester House Worship

GREAT MUSIC WAS PROVIDED BY OUR CHILDREN FOR THE RESIDENTS IN FEBRUARY!

Our monthly services continue at the Winchester House Nursing Home in Libertyville. LCC has several dedicated regular attenders who help by reading scripture, leading hymn singing, and interacting with the residents. This month Bruce Thorson will be doing the homily and we are looking for special music.

We encourage all to join the worship of God with our grateful audience, attending the 2:30 p.m. service on the first Sunday of every month. If any of you would be interested in taking a turn at delivering a homily or would like to offer special music for any of these services, please contact Maggie 847/772-8564 or maggiejohnson122@gmail.com.

Sensible Ladies Book Club

Many of our women were able to enjoy the evening "Book Club" at Deb Lindahl's in February as we had a "Miss Julia" tea party with interesting and thoughtful discussion. Thanks, Deb! A new book and discussion date have been chosen and you are welcome to join the fun. Mark your calendar now to reserve the evening of Friday, April 28th, to attend the "Sensible Ladies" Book Club at the home of Jill Heath, 331 Dorchester Lane, Grayslake at 7:00 p.m.

The book that has been chosen is One Thousand Gifts by Ann Voskamp.

In One Thousand Gifts, Ann invites you to embrace everyday blessings and embark on the transformative spiritual discipline of chronicling God's gifts.

It's only in this expressing of gratitude for the life we already have, we discover the life we've always wanted ... a life we can take, give thanks for, and break for others. We come to feel and know the impossible right down in our bones: we are wildly loved — by God.

Pick up a copy of the book now, and begin reading. It will be helpful if you rsvp to Jill at wick423@comcast.net to let her know you plan to attend.

If you have concerns, questions, or advice for your Church Chair, Scott Dahlberg, feel free to call 847-456-6086 or email. scodah@gmail.com Or, perhaps you want to offer to serve on one of our committees or teams. Volunteers are always appreciated!

NURSERY NEWS

I'd like to thank all of my volunteers. You all are so wonderful! The church served at Feed My Starving Children this month, all kids under 5 stayed at church, and we had a lot! Thanks to those who stayed with these kids so that their families could go serve.

We are really in need of volunteers for our preschool class downstairs. Would you please pray about and consider helping out? We could use regular people that can be put on the rotation, or if you are willing to be a floater (someone that fills in on occasion), that would be so helpful!

I'm excited for the new stickers that will be available in the nursery. This will be a new way to check in and keep track allergies and such. Keep an eye out for them.

We need to know how many vans we need for the trip, so please sign up asap, but definitely no later than Feb. 17th. You can register using the form below, but please let us know you're going so we can arrange housing and transportation together. On March 17th, 1922 a baby girl joined the cradle roll at Youngstown Covenant Church in Ohio. This woman now holds the honor of being our longest living member here at LCC. Jean Heintzelman will be celebrating her 95th birthday this month and as you can see she is still enjoying her life, along with her newest great grandson, Olaf. Since moving to Covenant Village Jean has attended Winnetka Covenant Church but has been significant to LCC since she and her husband George began attending in 1984. Throughout the generations she has been an inspirational example cheerfully serving wherever needed. We wish her continued good health and many blessings in the coming year.

The Evangelical Covenant Church affirms the centrality of the scriptures, with emphasis upon the grace of God. Covenanters also have a tradition of freedom that accepts a diversity of backgrounds and doctrinal positions, while maintaining a common unity in Christ. The Covenant has often been called a Family of Faith. Our congregational life indicates that this is an apt description.
