Belong by Pastor Steve Larson

In the time of Ezra and Nehemiah, around 440 BC, a group from within Israel formed in order to guard the righteousness of God's People and protect them from diluting their culture. They called themselves the Nivdalim, "those who had separated themselves". Whenever Israel began to blend with the cultures around them, the Nivdalim would step in and remind them of all that made them holy, (literally meaning "separate"), from the world around them. In the times between the Old and New Testaments, when Israel was once again courting Rome and becoming more Roman than Jewish, the Nivdalim joined with the Maccabees to drive off the Romans and hold Israel together. And when the Maccabees themselves became too worldly, it was the Nivdalim who called them to account. We know the Nivdalim by their Aramaic name, "Perishuth" or Phari-see.

The message of the Pharisees has always been,

The message of Jesus has always been,
"You are a sinner so you belong."

"You are a sinner so you don't belong." While holding tight the boundaries of God's People, the Pharisees began to exclude anything and anyone they deemed worldly who might influence the righteous away from following God wholeheartedly. But this is a dangerous practice, one with which Jesus had some serious problems. In fact, the

Pharisees were one of the only groups that Jesus treated as an enemy.

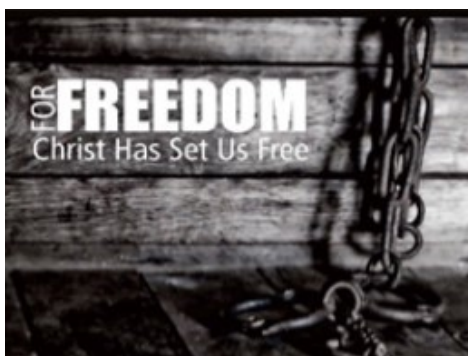

You see, the message of Jesus has always been, "You are a sinner so you belong." Whether talking to a leper, a prostitute, a violent political revolutionary, a traitorous tax collector, or even a Pharisee, Jesus' message was always the same: "You are a sinner so you belong." In fact, for Jesus, belonging always seemed to precede believing. His call was always "come and follow me" first, and "obey all I have commanded" second. "Neither do I condemn you" first, and "go and sin no more" second.

Which message do we give this world around us?

Our denomination has a number of resources available to us. You can find them by checking out the website: www.covchurch.org

Or, you may look at our Information Center. Please help yourself to a copy of the Covenant Home Altar which is published quarterly for your use. You will also find our Missionary Prayer Calendar which reminds us to pray for those serving around the world.

Worship in May

When Jesus died and rose again for us, He ushered in a new life, one of freedom from the pain and death of the past. Many encountered Him after His resurrection, and each one found freedom. This April and May, we will be looking at the freedom we received through the cross and resurrection, a freedom that allows us to truly live as Jesus intended. Join us each Sunday at 10:30 am.

We are looking forward to partnering with Jill's House as they begin a new program at Covenant Harbor providing respite for those families caring for a disabled family member and a positive camp experience as well. We will be hosting these families here at church as they drop off and pick up their children. They are also looking for people interested in volunteering at their first weekend of camp, June 1-3, 2018. It would be great to have a group from LCC come out to camp with them for the weekend! Jill's House needs 8-10 volunteers (age 16 or older) that would be able to serve as a 1:1 buddy for our campers. The cost to volunteer is $30. Food and lodging is provided and these camp weekends will be an unforgettable experience!

The link below has a form that all volunteers should fill out if they are interested in serving at the launch weekend. If you have any questions, contact Rebecca Little, Program Supervisor for Jill's House Windy City. Our LCC team leader for Jill's House is Caren Vollrath caren-vollrath@gmail.com and our Buddy Coordinator is Dave (Kansas) Anderson danderson@proactiongroup.com. We already have some buddies signed up—join them!

NURSERY NEWS

Things are going well in both the infant and pre-school nursery. Another school year is wrapping up and the kids have grown so much! What a blessing it is to watch them grow up!

I would like to mention something about our new worship bags. If you are not familiar with them, they are bags located by the door as you walk into the church sanctuary. Kids are able to take one and bring it with them as they sit in church. There is paper and crayons and pens for. Kids to draw. There are also some worksheets and other activities. This is meant to keep little hands busy during worship. If you have any ideas about things to include in these bags, please let me know. I also want to thank Caren Vollrath for her fantastic art work on each of the bags! She did a fantastic job and I'm so thankful for her willingness to help with this project!

The Evangelical Covenant Church affirms the centrality of the scriptures, with emphasis upon the grace of God. Covenanters also have a tradition of freedom that accepts a diversity of backgrounds and doctrinal positions, while maintaining a common unity in Christ. The Covenant has often been called a Family of Faith. Our congregational life indicates that this is an apt description.

Many from our FDF group recently enjoyed lunch and took advantage of an excellent presentation by an estate planner/attorney at Covenant Village of Northbrook. They heard about what legal, medical, financial, and electronic records you need and how to organize your personal information.
